K-9 Conditioning with Kathy Lesinski CCFT Saturday October 21, 2017

Kathy graduated from Central Connecticut State University with a Bachelor and Masters of Science Degrees and is certified through the State of Connecticut as a Physical Education and Health teacher and has been a Physical Education teacher for 15 yrs. Kathy took 10 years off from teaching to get involved in dogsled racing, breeding and raising her own Siberian huskies and developed one of the top Siberian Husky teams in New England for 30-100 mile races. In 2012, Kathy returned to teaching Physical Education and Health at Hartford Public High School and presently at the elementary level.

In 2004, Kathy started competition dog agility with her Siberian Husky Mach 2 Kryskas Kai of the Valley "Kai" and as one of the top 5 Siberian Huskys in the country qualified for two AKC invitational competitions. She currently competes in Masters level agility with her Portuguese water dog, MACH Myles and is also training her Labrador retriever puppy Remy.

Kathy a FitPaws Certified Canine Fitness Trainer, spent 3 years working for Wizard of Paws canine rehabilitation and conditioning center where she worked with owners conditioning their dogs. Kathy says, "I decided to get back to working with dogs part time as I enjoy conditioning dogs and teaching owner's how to keep their dogs in tiptop shape for whatever activity or age of the dog."
